Director Carole Hunt, hosting the event, welcomed the finalists saying, "You represent what 'Determined to be the Difference' means. I am very proud and privileged to work with you."

Rob Burcher, Regional Support Services Manager, had a virtual presence in a Masterchef-style video of the finalists' cook-off, the culmination of The Cinnamon Chef Challenge. Chris Gray-Grana Priego from Wellington Vale won the Chef of the Year trophy and £500.

Director Greg Swire, presenting the You Make The Difference Awards for Care and non-Care, praised all the finalists for embracing Cinnamon's vision and values, and inspiring their colleagues. Durga Shrestha from Rectory Court and Toma Kennedy from Burcot Lodge each won the You Make The Difference trophy and £500.

Presenting the Spirit of Cinnamon Award to Netley Court's Catering Team, Declan Walsh, Managing Partner, said, "Teamwork is at the heart of what Cinnamon is all about and this team excelled, showing great leadership and passion for doing their very best." Their prize was £1,000 for a team event and the award trophy.

Declan thanked event organiser Sadie Barker, Head of HR & Training, and closed the 2019 awards saying, "We have such an exciting future ahead and this is only possible because of you. So please keep doing what you're doing - making a difference to the lives of our residents."
